Very charming on the inside and out. This 2 storey semi-detached home is located in the quaint neighbourhood of Buena Vista. Conforming to the styles of homes in this mature area, this home has character both inside and out. The perennial gardens in the front and the back blend well with the many gardens in and around Coy Ave. The incredible use of space in the design of the home shows with 4 bedrooms and 4 baths. Hardwood floors in the living room and the maple kitchen with island and pantry make this home perfect for cooking and family gatherings. The lower level has been designed well with a bedroom, family room with built in electric fireplace and beautiful bathroom with in floor heat as well as full laundry room with sink etc. The home comes with air conditioning and a large oversized single garage with 10 ft walls for great storage ability. Upgraded trim package, neutral tones, great decorating and pride of ownership make this home a must to see.
